

The NJ laws are not too strict. I do not want ANY calls to my home from telemarketers at ANY time. I WILL NEVER buy anything or contribute to anything over the phone. By getting the phone call i'm forced to be rude because i hang the phone up on them. Leave the law the way it is now. Dinner time and night time are no longer disturbed by annoying telemarketers.